ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

- If training assistance was received in the past from the JCCWD, you may not be eligible for additional training.
- With respect to funds allocated to JCCWD for Adult and Dislocated Worker Career Services and Training Services, priority will be given to veterans, low-income individuals and those individuals with barriers to employment.
- Training dollars are not “entitlements”, nor is JCCWD funding considered financial aid.
- All applicants must be actively seeking employment.
- All applicants are required to take the Test of Adult Basic Education (TABE) Assessment (math and reading).
- All applicants with children should bring someone to care for them while they complete the application process or take the TABE Assessment. Noisy, disruptive or unruly children will not be allowed to disturb others while they are being served or when testing.
- If you are considering a training program in the medical field (Registered Nursing, Licensed Practical Nurse, Clinical Laboratory Technology, etc.) and it is required that you apply and be admitted into the program and/or complete certain prerequisites, then a Letter of Acceptance from the program of study will be needed prior to consideration for funding.
